10Q4	3.00	6.00	3.55	3.25	3.45	4.00	4.75	5.50	5.80

* All forecast values are for the end of the designated period.

Global growth will be slow, with the US in outright recession and no sign of inflation. Monetary policy will start to normalize only in 2010.

Treasury yields will be caught between much higher issuance and the weak economy. We expect the US yield curve to remain very steep for another year.
